When?

Tuesday mornings, beginning mid-September

Job Description:

Seeking students looking for experience in Children's Ministry to oversee a weekly program for infants and toddlers during a Women's Bible Study on Tuesday mornings. Candidates must be enthusiastic, friendly/welcoming, and have a desire to serve children and families. A vibrant children's program allows our young moms and their children to be in community with one another while deepening their faith. Candidates must be responsible, reliable, and able to complete Compass Point Bible Church ministry training and a vulnerable sector police check. Up to four positions available. An honourarium may be considered to offset travel costs.
