INTRODUCTION TO BIBLICAL HEBREW 2 (HEB 2B03)

INSTRUCTOR: MARY L. CONWAY, PH.D.

Email: conwam2@mcmaster.ca

Mondays & Wednesdays @ 3:30pm-5:00pm

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is a continuation of HEB 2A03 and continues the journey of learning Hebrew with the aim of enhancing the student's capacity for study in the biblical texts and for interpretation of these texts. Building on the previous course, students will learn more grammar, syntax, and vocabulary of the language of the Hebrew Bible/Old Testament. There will be continued emphasis on morphology (words and their forms) and syntax (how words fit together to make coherent sentences). Students will also continue to acquire a broad vocabulary for reading and translation and more skill will be developed in the use of lexicons. The knowledge acquired should enable the student to read the simple prose and poetry of the Hebrew Bible/Old Testament in its original language.

N.B.: The study of Hebrew is very challenging for most students but is very rewarding for those who persevere. You should plan on spending 1–3 hours every day preparing for and reviewing material covered in class. The secret of success is to attend every class, to complete your assignments regularly and on time, and to review what you have learned on a consistent basis.

Grammar Tests and Translations	35%
Vocabulary Quizzes	15%
Workbook Exercises	15%
Final Examination	35%
Total Grade	100%

Policy for Missed Quizzes, Tests, and Assignments:

Marks will be deducted for late assignments if there is no valid reason, such as major illness (a doctor's note may be required) or major family crisis. The deduction will be 2% per day. It is essential in a language course that students keep up with their work if they are to be successful.

There will be no make up for missed quizzes/tests except in the case of illness (a doctor's note may be required) or serious family crisis. If you must miss a test or quiz due to a valid reason, you must email the professor at conwam2@mcmaster.ca as soon as possible. You must make arrangements to make up the quiz or test at the first possible opportunity.

- 1. Grammar Tests and Translations: 35%. At the beginning of each Monday class there will be a grammar test covering the material up to the previous class. They may include sentence translations, grammar explanations or diagramming, paradigms, and parsing, etc.
- 2. Vocabulary Quizzes: 15%. At the beginning of class each Wednesday there will be a vocab quiz covering material up to and including the chapter covered in the last class.

These quizzes will simply ask for the English translation of 24 Hebrew words.

3. Workbook Exercises: 15%. Dates marked on course schedule with an asterisk (*). Once a chapter has been covered in class, students must then complete the corresponding workbook pages for the next class. Workbook exercises will be handed in for grading. The actual pages from the exercise book can be torn out (or photocopied) and stapled together to be submitted (in legible handwriting). Please be sure to write your name on the sheets.

Note: Students must show evidence in their workbooks of individual translation, such as parsing, highlighting, and tentative translations. Do not give in to the temptation to copy from an English translation. The only way to learn is by doing the translations yourself.

Evaluation:	Completeness	5%
	Parsing	5%
	Translation evidence and corrections	5%

4. Final Exam: 35%. Details about the final exam will be given in class nearer to the date.

V. CLASSROOM BEHAVIOUR, ATTENDANCE, AND PARTICIPATION

- Students are expected to be on time for class. Admittedly, unavoidable delays do occasionally happen. If you arrive late, please enter as quietly as possible and give an explanation to the professor after class.
- Students are also expected to stay for the entire class session.
- Computers and tablets should only be used for class related purposes, not for social networking and the like.
- All thoughtful student participation is welcome. There are no “dumb questions” or “stupid answers.” Students will respect the contributions of other students and respond to them without ridicule or scorn.
- Students may eat or drink in class as long as they do so quietly and unobtrusively and clean up afterwards.

VI. GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR THE SUBMISSION OF WRITTEN WORK

All assignments must adhere to the MDC Writing Style Guide, available from <http://www.mcmasterdivinity.ca/programs/resources-forms>.

Inclusive Language

McMaster Divinity College uses inclusive language for human beings in worship services, student written materials, and all of its publications. In reference to biblical texts, the integrity of the original expressions and the names of God should be respected. The NRSV and TNIV are examples of the use of inclusive language for human beings. It is expected that inclusive language will be used in chapel services and all MDC assignments.

Academic Dishonesty

Academic dishonesty is a serious offence that may take any number of forms, including plagiarism, the submission of work that is not one’s own or for which previous credit has been obtained, and/or unauthorized collaboration with other students. Academic dishonesty can result in severe consequences, e.g., failure of the assignment, failure of the course, a notation on one’s academic transcript, and/or suspension or expulsion from the College. Students are responsible for understanding what constitutes academic dishonesty. Please refer to the Divinity College Statement on Academic Honesty at <http://www.mcmasterdivinity.ca/programs/rules-regulations>.
