Fall 2016 (Sept-Dec)

INTRODUCTION TO BIBLICAL HEBREW 2 ONLINE (OT 1H03)

INSTRUCTOR: MARY L. CONWAY, PH.D.

Divinity College Room 228
Phone: 1.905.525.9140 x26002
Email: conwam2@mcmaster.ca

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is a continuation of OT 1G03 and continues the journey of learning Hebrew with the aim of enhancing the student's capacity for study in the biblical texts and for interpretation of these texts. Building on the previous course, students will learn more grammar, syntax, and vocabulary of the language of the Hebrew Bible/Old Testament. There will be continued emphasis on morphology (words and their forms) and syntax (how words fit together to make coherent sentences). Students will also continue to acquire a broad vocabulary for reading and translation and more skill will be developed in the use of lexicons. Pronunciation and oral reading will be practiced. The knowledge acquired should enable the student to read the simple prose and poetry of the Hebrew Bible/Old Testament in its original language.

N.B.: The study of Hebrew is challenging for most students but is very rewarding for those who persevere. You should plan on spending at least 1–3 hours every day listening to lectures, completing assignments, and reviewing. You cannot “set this course aside” for a week or two while you work on a paper for another course! The secret of success is to keep to a regular schedule of study, to complete your assignments carefully and on time, and to review what you have learned on a consistent basis.

B. COURSE WEBSITE

A course website has been established on Avenue to Learn, also known as A2L, (<http://Avenue.mcmaster.ca/>) that contains learning resources and complete instructions. Access to this website will be given on registering in the course.

C. RECOMMENDED RESOURCES

At least one aid to learning vocabulary is strongly recommended. The following are keyed to the course text:

1. Flashworks vocabulary learning computer program. This is a free download from <https://www.teknia.com/flashworks>. It is also available on the CD that is included with older printings of the text.
2. Old Testament Hebrew Vocabulary Cards. ISBN: 978-0310259862
3. Basics of Biblical Hebrew Vocabulary Audio CD: ISBN: 978-0310270744

D. ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING

Note: It is extremely important that you do not become dependent on Bible software programs as a substitute for learning. These programs cannot be used on tests and exams. You are strongly advised not to use these programs until later in the learning process.

Policy for Missed Quizzes, Tests, and Assignments:

Further details for assignments are given on the Avenue to Learn website. There is some flexibility in when students take tests, but they must be completed by a deadline. It is essential in a language course that students do not fall behind if they are to be successful. Marks will be deducted for late assignments or delayed tests if there is no valid reason, such as major illness (a doctor's note may be required) or a major family crisis. The deduction will be 3% per day. If you have a valid reason to request an extension, please email me at conwam2@mcmaster.ca before the due date. Please schedule your time carefully.

1. Vocabulary Quizzes: 10%. Students will complete brief online quizzes on the vocabulary for each chapter.

2. Oral Reading/Translation: 5%. Students will be tested on their translation and oral reading of a passage of about 5 verses from the book of Jonah. Details will be provided on Avenue to Learn.

3. Workbook Exercises: 20%. Each chapter in the textbook has a corresponding chapter in the workbook. Once a chapter has been covered by the video lecture and text, students must then complete the corresponding workbook pages. Students are required to complete a minimum of every other question (1, 3, 5 or a, c, e) in each exercise. Workbook exercises will be handed in for grading on a regular basis as indicated on the schedule below. This may be done in one of two ways:

(1) Preferred: The pages may be scanned or clearly photographed and uploaded as one PDF file to the Dropbox for that assignment (see A2L for more details). They will be returned within a week with comments. Every question will not be checked and corrected. Since you have an answer key and can consult the versions, you are expected to self-correct as part of the learning process. However, helpful feedback will be given.

(2) If for some reason you cannot upload your work, the actual pages from the exercise book can be torn out along the perforations, or photocopied, and stapled together to be submitted as hard copies to the college Student Records Office (be sure the pages are date stamped by staff) or to the instructor in person (by appointment or chance). They will be available for pick up after one week. Be sure to keep a copy of your work! At the top of the first page please be sure to write your name.

Important: Students must show evidence in their workbooks of individual effort, such as parsing, highlighting, tentative translations, and corrections. Examples are given on the course website. You will be evaluated by the rubric on A2L; please check this before completing your workbook. Do not give in to the temptation to simply copy from an English translation; this is plagiarism. The only way to learn is by doing the translations yourself. However, after you have completed your translation as well as you can, be sure to check your translation against a good, recent, fairly literal translation such as the NASB.

4. Term Test 1: 15%. This will cover all material from Chapters 1 to 23 and will include vocabulary, grammar, parsing, and translations.

5. Term Test 2: 20%. This will cover all material from Chapters 1 to 30 and will include vocabulary, grammar, parsing, and translations.

6. Final Exam: 30%. Review materials will be provided. This will cover all material from Chapters 1 to 36 and will include vocabulary, grammar, parsing, and translations.

Important: Learning a language is a cumulative process. Students will be expected to know the material from Chapter 1 in the text up to the last chapter cited, including vocabulary, for all tests and exams.

Note: The tests and exam must be arranged by the due dates indicated below and must be completed within an allotted time. The tests and exam will be completed online on Avenue to Learn. This method is strongly recommended, but if this is not possible, they must be proctored. Proctoring may be done in one of two ways:

(1) Students who live nearby may contact the instructor and arrange, at least a week before the exam, a mutually convenient time within the time frame to come in to the College to write the test/exam,

(2) Students who cannot come to the College may choose a responsible person, such as a pastor or teacher, to proctor the exam. This person must be approved by the instructor and the Registrar of McMaster Divinity College and the proctor must be contacted by the college before the text/exam is taken. Please allow adequate time for this to be arranged within the time frame; we must receive the proctor's name, position, and contact information (including email address) at least 10 days before the exam is due to be written. Be sure the proctor is willing to serve in this capacity before you send the information to us.

IV. CONTACT WITH THE INSTRUCTOR

The instructor will be available via email, in person, by phone, by Skype, and through the Avenue to Learn discussion page. Please do NOT use the built-in Avenue email system, but the email address conwam2@mcmaster.ca. On the discussion page, the student will be able to ask questions and will also be able to interact with any other students who may be taking the course. The student is encouraged to schedule conversations with the instructor during the semester and is responsible for initiating this interaction. Remember, there are no "dumb questions"; questioning is a good way to engage in the learning process.

VI. GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR THE SUBMISSION OF WRITTEN WORK

All assignments must adhere to the MDC Writing Style Guide, available from <https://mcmasterdivinity.ca/sites/default/files/documents/mdcstyleguide.pdf>.

Inclusive Language

McMaster Divinity College uses inclusive language for human beings in worship services, student written materials, and all of its publications. In reference to biblical texts, the integrity of the original expressions and the names of God should be respected. The NRSV and TNIV are examples of the use of inclusive language for human beings. It is expected that inclusive language will be used in chapel services and all MDC assignments.

Academic Dishonesty

Academic dishonesty is a serious offence that may take any number of forms, including plagiarism, the submission of work that is not one's own or for which previous credit has been obtained, and/or unauthorized collaboration with other students. Academic dishonesty can result in severe consequences, e.g., failure of the assignment, failure of the course, a notation on one's academic transcript, and/or suspension or expulsion from the College. Students are responsible for understanding what constitutes academic dishonesty. Please refer to the Divinity College Statement on Academic Honesty at <http://www.mcmasterdivinity.ca/programs/rules-regulations>.
