I. Course Description:

In our current cultural context, there are few issues more important and practical than social justice. How do we implement God’s justice on earth? This course has practical and urgent implications for the individual as well as the evangelical Church and its mission. This course will examine the biblical foundation for the definition and practice of social justice in the church, by exploring the Old Testament foundations, the theology and practice in the life of Jesus and the early church, and the challenges, opportunities and responsibilities for application in the contemporary Canadian, North American and global context. Content will be alternated with interactive activities of reflection and application. Each student will integrate the biblical content, course activities and field experience with their specialization.

II. Specializations

This course is an elective for specializations in Biblical Studies (BS), Church and Culture (CC), Christian Worldview (CW) and Pastoral Studies (PS).

Doctor of Practical Theology students who wish to apply for this course as an Advanced Elective for their degree program must consult with the Program Director of the DPT and the course instructor in order to develop an Advanced Elective approach to the course that fulfills the specific elements required by the DPT program. Once the elements of the Advanced Elective have been agreed upon by the student, the Program Director, and the instructor, a formal application can be made for an Advanced Elective in connection with this course. Once the application is accepted, DPT students can proceed with the course as part of their degree program.

II. Course Objectives:
Through the course work and assignments, the student will:

A. Knowing
1. Understand the biblical basis for the practice of social justice for the individual, the church, society and global contexts.
2. Learn exegetical principles that bring the diverse horizons together of the Old Testament contexts, the New Testament contexts and our contemporary contexts.

B. Being
1. Be a person committed to personal and communal righteousness
2. Be a person who integrates tangible connections between Scripture, theology and action.

C. Doing
1. Research a biblical topic/theme, passage or practice that is relevant to one’s specialization and relates to the Church and current personal and communal practice.
2. Interact critically with current biblical scholarship on social justice
3. Develop a life map centered on social justice.
4. Engage in field experience in which social justice is being enacted in local contexts and theologically reflect on that experience.

III. Course Requirements
A. Class Participation (10%)

B. Reading (10%)
Complete the required reading for the course and submit a reading report of the percentage of reading completed on time on Dec 12.

C. Assignments
1. Field Experience and Theological Reflection (20%)
The student will volunteer and/or observe social justice for a minimum of 4 hours in an on-site location (suggestions distributed in class) write a 5 page theological reflection on the experience based on the MRS model for spiritual reflection. It is due midnight, Dec 12. Submit by e-mail to westfal@mcmaster.ca.

2. Development of a Life Map Centred on Social Justice (30%)
a. Summarize your personal theology concerning social justice, integrating content, activities and issues covered in class. It is due class time Dec 1. Bring a hard copy to class for discussion.

b. Utilizing the activities in the course, design a map (model) with the following sections
(1) Identify your calling to social justice through your life story
(2) Clarify the biblical basis for social justice in your area(s) of interest
(3) Identify your areas of responsibility, circle of influence and passion
(4) Problem-solve any challenges and barriers
(5) Plan to implement necessary changes.
(6) In summary, write your personal mission statement you are free to integrate the different genres modeled in biblical literature and use creativity. The paper should follow the MDC Style Guide (http://www.macdiv.ca/students/documents/MacStyleGuide.pdf) and be a minimum of 10 pages long.

3. Research or Exegetical Paper (30%)
   a. Each student will write a research or exegetical paper on the issue of social justice with the focus on Jesus or the early church—that is, you may select an Old Testament passage or motif instead of a passage or motif from the New Testament, but apply a Christological lens or focus on its connection with the early church or the New Testament. It is due midnight, Nov 9. Submit it in PDF form to westfal@mcmaster.ca.
   b. Length & style: It should approximately 3000 words (about 12 pages) of text, excluding footnotes and bibliography. For all matters of style and form, consult the McMaster Divinity College Style Guidelines for Essays and Theses: http://www.macdiv.ca/students/documents/MacStyleGuide.pdf There should be a minimum of 15 academic sources used in the footnotes and bibliography, and DeSilva does not qualify as one of those 15 sources.

Other book services may also carry the texts.

D. Additional Materials

1. Any handouts for lectures and class discussion will be made available before class online in the course DropBox.
2. Further procedures and guidance for assignments will be given in class and/or online.

V. Classroom Behavior

A. Attendance

1. Attendance in all sessions is expected. Except in extreme circumstances, absence from more than 2 classes will result in grade penalties.
2. Students should be on time to class or be prepared to offer an explanation to the professor (preferably in advance).
3. Students are expected to stay for the entire class session, unless arranged in advance.

B. Participation

1. Please respect the opinions of others without disrespect or ridicule, even if you do not agree with them. However, feel free to respond logically and critically in an orderly manner.
2. Students are not expected to be doing work on any other subject except that which is appropriate in the course outline.
3. Students are not to carry on off-topic conversations in class.
4. Students may eat or drink in class if they do not distract others and they clean up.
Students who fail to respect these guidelines will be dismissed from the class with consequences.

C. Late Assignments lose 1% each day for 7 days, and then 4% a day up to 30%. However, no assignments will be accepted after Dec 12.

D. Academic Honesty
Academic dishonesty is a serious offence that may take any number of forms, including plagiarism, the submission of work that is not one’s own or for which previous credit has been obtained, and/or unauthorized collaboration with other students. Academic dishonesty can result in severe consequences, e.g., failure of the assignment, failure of the course, a notation on one’s academic transcript, and/or suspension or expulsion from the College.

Students are responsible for understanding what constitutes academic dishonesty. Please refer to the Divinity College Statement on Academic Honesty ~ https://www.mcmasterdivinity.ca/programs/rules-regulations

D. Gender-Inclusive Language
McMaster Divinity College uses inclusive language for human beings in worship services, student written materials, and all its publications. It is expected that inclusive language will be used in chapel services and all MDC assignments. In reference to biblical texts, the integrity of the original expressions and the names of God should be respected, but you will need to use gender-inclusive language for humans, and you will need to quote from a gender-inclusive version such as the following: NRSV (1989), NCV (1991), TEV/GNB/GNT (1992), CEV (1995), NLT (1996), TNIV (2005), and the Common English Bible (CEB 2011).

E. Sexual Harassment
Sexual harassment is a violation of the integrity of persons in the form of unsolicited, unwelcome, verbal or physical behavior, which discriminates on the basis of gender about a person’s body, attire, gender, marital status or economic status. Among faculty, staff, and students, sexual harassment of any kind will not be tolerated.
