Course Description

Gender is one of the most crucial issues facing the church. The #metoo movement and the debate on the role of men and women in the home, church and society may be the major issues among North American evangelicals, and recently, the relationship of gender to the doctrine of the Trinity has been a major focus. Whatever your position, understanding the times necessitates a focus on gender and ministry. We will allow you the space that you need to process the issues. Christian leaders and committed lay people will do well to understand the current situation, work on a coherent biblical theology, and discern their own role and ministry or courses of action in the home, church and culture. This course will give each student the opportunity and resources to explore this issue in their area of specialization and to benefit from the insights and contributions of the other areas. The focus of research in the course may extend beyond gender roles to include contemporary concerns such as sexuality and sexual behavior, eating disorders, pornography, domestic violence and the sex trade.

This hybrid course will be a study of the biblical role of gender in ministry as it relates to the Church & Culture, Christian Worldview and Pastoral Studies. The title of the course, Gender & Ministry, reflects an interest in the issues of both genders. As a hybrid course, the format of the course will include weekly assignments accomplished online and online discussion as well as meeting Oct 18 & 19, two WebEx sessions and major papers.

Specializations

Pastoral Studies (PS)

Students taking this as a Pastoral Studies (PS) course are encouraged to explore how a biblical understanding of gender and ministry should be understood, practiced and transmitted in one's target area(s) such as leadership strategies, ethical decisions, and pastoral care as well as worship, teaching and preaching.

Christian Worldview (CW)

Students taking this as a Christian Worldview course are encouraged to explore the biblical and theological foundation of gender and ministry as well as tools, methods and opportunity for the engagement and dialogue with other worldviews that are targeted in your specialization and additional contexts as well.

Church and Culture (CC)

Students taking this as a Church and Culture (CC) course are encouraged to explore the interface of the Church and the contemporary world with gender in ministry in various contexts such as missions, development, evangelism, the emerging church, cultural context, preaching, or worship.

Biblical Studies (BS)

Students taking this as a Biblical Studies (BS) course will be encouraged to explore and research biblical content and develop a biblical theology that is exegetically responsible and interacts critically with scholarship that is fundamental in gender and ministry, with applications that embrace the complexity of contemporary culture(s).

Elective

This is a great elective that is relevant to any and every student! Take this opportunity to further develop your biblical worldview and develop a framework in which you can process the ongoing discussion of the biblical role and the issues of gender in the church, home and society.

Course Objectives

Specific Objectives – Through reading, lectures, discussion and assignments the student will:

Knowing

- Understand the concept of gender and how it relates to various issues, practices and problems.
- Understand the role gender has played in the student's own story
- Know the key biblical texts that concern gender and work towards understanding their interpretation within a coherent biblical theology

Being

- Experience a fusion of identity in Christ, calling and community with gender
- Be a proactive participant in the evangelical conversation on gender in a way that is consistent with the student's calling

Doing

- Process current gender issues and concerns with classmates.
- Research a topic of personal interest concerning gender and ministry
- Produce a portfolio project on gender in the area of specialization
- Specific biblical engagement, application, exercise, realization, or practice

Course Requirements (Please note that there will be some adjustments made to Course Requirements)

Reading (10%)

See the Course Schedule at the end of the syllabus for dates and pages.

- Read the scheduled material or passage in DBE and Westfall.
- Read Supplementary Papers distributed on Avenue and /or DropBox
- Submit to Avenue the percentage of reading completed on December 11, 11:59 p.m.

Face-to-Face and WebEx

Student attendance and participation in the two-day seminar (Oc) is necessary to pass the course. Online interaction on Avenue to Learn with posts and participation in Avenue discussion threads are required.

Two WebEx sessions are scheduled: September 10, 3:30-5:30 pm; December 10, 3:30-5:30

Online Videos

In addition to the Face to Face session, the professor release a video on the topic on the course schedule that combines information and activities.

Online Activities (25%)

- See the Schedule at the end for the precise dates and pages.
- Watch the professor's PowerPoint that is posted each week on Wednesday. Interact with the associated posted activities within the week.

Online Discussion (15%)

- Each student will initiate a thread in the Avenue discussion forum each week, with the exception of the Face-to-Face week.

- Each student will maintain the thread of their posted discussion.
- Each student will interact with a minimum of five other topics each week.

Written Assignments

Specialization Paper or Project (25%)

Each student will choose to write an exegetical or research paper or do a project which reflects their specialization: Pastoral Studies (PS), Church and Culture (CC), Christian Worldview (CW), or Biblical Studies (BS). Those taking the class for an elective can choose between options. The paper/project will be submitted online (or, if necessary, in hard copy) on Avenue to Learn before the scheduled WebEx session on December 10, 3:30–5:30 pm, at the end of the term.

1. Exegetical Paper (BS/PS)

- Length & style: It should be no less than 4000 words (about 15 pages) of text, excluding footnotes and bibliography. For all matters of style and form, consult the MacDiv Style Guide (see Style below)
- Approach:
  - The student will follow the “Steps to Exegesis” posted on Avenue
  - The student will choose one of the key biblical texts that is central to gender and ministry. Guidelines for the exegetical procedure will be given in detail online, but briefly, complete your own preliminary research/study of the text in terms of its big idea, argument and its relationship and contribution to the whole discourse before you interact with secondary sources. Carefully assess the options and state your position on controversial texts.

2. Research Paper (CC/CW)

- Length & style: It should be no less than 4,000 words (15 pages), excluding footnotes and bibliography. For all matters of style and form, consult the MDC Style Guide (see Style)
- Approach: The student will choose a topic of special interest, or on a topic that equips them with the information to meet their goals for the course and for their specialization.

3. Project (CC/CW)

- Each student will complete a paper or project designed to make the research accessible in a specific contemporary context, and discuss the project in a WebEx (at the time of the scheduled exam). No late projects will be accepted. If possible, a copy will also be submitted to Avenue.
- Length & style: If written, it should be approximately 3000 words (about twelve pages) of text, excluding footnotes and bibliography. For all matters of style and form, consult the McMaster Divinity College Style Guide (see Style). If it is a project, it should be somewhat comparable in time and effort to a 12 pg. research paper.
- Each project should be discussed in advance with the professor and a written statement describing the appropriateness for one’s specialization, the specific contemporary context targeted, the passage that is being re-presented, the goal of the project and the approach,

Ideal: Apply your research paper to your project! Some suggestions include:

- A sermon on a passage on Gender in Ministry

- A study guide that will assist young adult learners in exploring or understanding a biblical theology of gender. Include questions, explanations, directions and other material that both enlightens the text in its historical context and helps learners to connect the text with life today
- A movie presentation, critical review and discussion which encapsulates a theme of gender within a Christian worldview.
- A parable or allegory that utilizes significant or powerful contemporary imagery, symbols or metaphors that express relevant topics or issues concerning Gender and the Church.
- A collection of poetry or songs that explore thought, themes and/or emotions related to the topics on gender in the course.
- An experience for a small group that simulates situations or experiences relevant to gender and ministry

A description of the connections between the characters, contexts and themes in your life story and Hebrews

Life Map (25%)

Each student will create a Life Map, which will be due 11:59 pm, Friday, November 15, submitted online on Avenue to Learn..

1. Format: While it should follow the MDC Style Guide, the format may implement pictures or other more informal features. The length should be a minimum of 2,500 words, but the page number may vary.
2. Approach:
  - Identify your relationship to gender issues through your life story.
  - Clarify the biblical basis for your understanding of gender.
  - Identify your areas of responsibility, influence and passion in dealing with gender in the church, home and society.
  - Summarize your calling in regards to gender
  - Problem-solve any challenges and barriers to dealing with these areas.
  - Plan to implement plans of action or necessary changes.
  - Write a personal mission statement in regards to gender and ministry

Grading Summary

Reading	10%
Online Activities	25%
Online discussion	15%
Paper	25%
Life Map	25%

Additional Materials

- Any handouts for lectures and class discussion will be made available before class online in Avenue or the course DropBox.
- Further procedures and guidance for assignments will be given in class and/or online.

Classroom Behavior

Attendance

- Attendance in the two-day session is required to pass the course
- Watching the course videos is mandatory for the course.
- Missing more than the equivalent of two weekly classes may result in the reduction of grade or failure.
- Students should be on time to class & WebEx sessions or be prepared to offer an explanation to the professor (preferably in advance).
- Students are expected to stay for the entire class session, unless arranged in advance.

Participation

- Please respect the opinions of others without disrespect or ridicule, even if you do not agree with them. However, feel free to respond logically and critically in an orderly manner.
- Students are not expected to be doing work on any other subject except that which is appropriate in the course outline.
- Students are not to carry on off-topic (or online) conversations in class.
- Students may eat or drink in class if they do not distract others and they clean up.
- Students who fail to respect these guidelines will be dismissed from the class with consequences.

Late Assignments

Lose 2% each day for 7 days, and then 4% a day up to 30%. However, the projects and all assignments must be turned in by December 11 to complete the course.

Textbook Purchase

All required textbooks for this class are available from the College's book service, READ On Bookstore, Room 145, McMaster Divinity College. Texts may be purchased on the first day of class. For advance purchase, you may contact READ On Bookstore, 5 International Blvd, Etobicoke, Ontario M9W 6H3: phone 416.620.2934; fax 416.622.2308; email books@readon.ca. Other book services may also carry the texts.

Academic Honesty

Academic dishonesty is a serious offence that may take any number of forms, including plagiarism, the submission of work that is not one's own or for which previous credit has been obtained, and/or unauthorized collaboration with other students. Academic dishonesty can result in severe consequences, e.g., failure of the assignment, failure of the course, a notation on one's academic transcript, and/or suspension or expulsion from the College.

Students are responsible for understanding what constitutes academic dishonesty. Please refer to the Divinity College Statement on Academic Honesty ~ <https://mcmasterdivinity.ca/rules-regulations/>

Gender Inclusive Language

McMaster Divinity College uses inclusive language for human beings in worship services, student written materials, and all its publications. It is expected that inclusive language will be used in chapel services and all MDC assignments. In reference to biblical texts, the integrity of the original expressions and the names of God should be respected, but you will need to use gender-inclusive language for humans, and you will need to quote from a gender-inclusive version such as the following: NRSV (1989), NCV (1991), TEV/GNB/GNT (1992), CEV (1995), NLT (1996), TNIV (2005), and the Common English Bible (CEB 2011).

Style

All stylistic considerations (including but not limited to questions of formatting, footnotes, and bibliographic references) must conform to the McMaster Divinity College Style Guidelines for Essays and Theses <http://mcmasterdivinity.ca/wp-content/uploads/2018/02/mdcstyleguide.pdf> Failure to observe appropriate form will result in grade reductions.
