CO-LECTURER:

Online Asynchronous/Synchronous: Most of the work is asynchronous. Weekly online synchronous classes/workshops will be arranged at the mutual convenience of students and the professor.

There will be a course web page on Avenue to Learn (A2L).

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

Note: This is an online course. Students must have a basic familiarity with computers in order to participate, including the ability to navigate web sites, videoconference,¹ and make and upload PDFs of assignments (from Word: File > Save as PDF).

People like to talk about what the Bible means, sometimes even with reference to “the original Hebrew.” However, for readers and teachers of the Bible to access useful resources and make insightful observations about the meaning of a text without making regrettable errors, they need to understand how languages make meaning—and how Hebrew makes meaning. This course explores the world of human language: language theory and how it applies to understanding texts. It will also review English grammar—which many students were never taught—as a basis for understanding Hebrew grammar. This will enable students to be better prepared to engage with our main task: learning the basics of Hebrew, focusing on how the linguistic elements lead to meaningful and accurate interpretation. There will necessarily be some memorization of vocabulary and the three main paradigms, but this course will also significantly reduce the amount of memorization usually required in language learning, since the focus is on understanding and application. The first part of each class (Mangled Language and Theory) will be shared with the Greek 1 Introduction class since the concepts apply to both.

This course will appeal to two types of students:

1. Those who want to begin the process of learning biblical languages, especially those who plan on doing more advanced learning. Subsequent courses will teach the intelligent use of Hebrew resources as well as a more detailed knowledge of the languages and application to the biblical text.
2. Those who do not plan to study biblical languages in depth (or those who are not sure whether they do) but want to understand how languages work, how to move from one language to another, and how to interpret the biblical text responsibly. Those who want to continue with deeper study may do so.

The weekly online classroom/workshop time (via Webex) will be dedicated to answering questions, clarifying concepts, consolidating learning, discussing interpretation, and practicing skills. These online synchronous classes/workshops will be arranged at a time that is mutually convenient for the students and professor. They are recorded and made available privately to students for review and asynchronous study.

Learning styles differ, and you know yourself best. A sample lecture is available online at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=76lyeFx9jXs>. The PPT slides used in these videos will be posted free online. If you do not think the BBH videos will be helpful, you may choose not to use them. You may find that the MDC videos, which are required, are enough.

5. MDC Video Lectures (required)

A series of video lectures has been prepared by the professor specifically for this course, focusing on language theory and interpretation. They also review and expand textbook concepts. They are free and available on A2L.

² These video lectures will also be useful for the subsequent online course, Hebrew 2 Morphology OT 2C03. The video lectures are not available in our bookstore. They may be purchased online from Amazon or Chapters-Indigo as a set of discs that covers both Hebrew 1 and 2, or purchased a download from <https://vimeo.com/ondemand/bbh>. For the download options there is "instant delivery." They may also be available from other sources.

Bonus Activity: Mangled Language Discussions: up to 5% bonus.

Each week a question will be posted in a discussion on A2L. It will deal with a “questionable” interpretation of a biblical text involving the use of language. Students who read and respond with a thoughtful comment to these will earn up to a 5% bonus mark in the course. These will be expanded on in the follow-up Mangled Language videos.

Assignment 1: Practical Exercises 30%. Due on October 5, October 31, November 13, December 9 at 11:30 pm. Marked on the schedule with *.

Students will complete weekly exercises from the BBH Workbook that involve the use of material covered in the BBH Text/Videos. The online workshops will focus in part on discussing and answering questions about these exercises to help you learn. We will work through examples together. Students are required to complete at least the alternate questions in each section (1, 3, 5, etc. or a, c, e etc.). Many students choose to do more for extra practice. These exercises will be collected and graded on four different dates. Students will memorize only the 3 most frequent paradigms. More details will be posted on A2L.

Assignment 2: Vocabulary 10%. Due as detailed below.

You will be responsible for learning roughly 250 common words in Hebrew. You will be required to give an English gloss for each. The vocabulary will be taken from the BBH 3rd edition materials and quizzed online regularly on A2L.

Evaluate and critique a sermon, article, or an excerpt of a commentary (which will be provided by the instructor) in terms of the handling of the original Hebrew language. Students should utilize what they learn in class and identify the common exegetical and linguistic fallacies. At least 5 resources other than lexicons and grammars must be consulted. The entire report should be around 8 pages and must follow the “McMaster Divinity College Style Guidelines for Essays and Theses.” Details will be provided on A2L.

Assignment 5: Exam 20%. Due by Friday, December 11

Information will be given in class.

Policy for Late Assignments:

Marks will be deducted for late assignments if there is no valid reason, such as illness (a doctor’s note may be required) or serious family crisis. The deduction will be 3% per day. Extensions must be approved before the due date.

V. CLASSROOM BEHAVIOUR, ATTENDANCE, AND PARTICIPATION

- All thoughtful student participation is welcome. There are no "dumb questions" or "stupid answers." Students will respect the contributions of other students, although they may disagree, and respond to them without ridicule or scorn.
- Students are expected to attend all online classes. Missing a class in order to work on other assignments is a consequence of poor planning and is unacceptable. If you are genuinely ill or there is a serious emergency, your absence is acceptable. Please email the professor to explain.
- Students are expected to be on time for class. Admittedly, unavoidable delays do occasionally happen. If you arrive late, please email an explanation to the professor after class.
- Students are also expected to stay for the entire class session.

VI. GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR THE SUBMISSION OF WRITTEN WORK

Style

All stylistic considerations (including but not limited to questions of formatting, footnotes, and bibliographic references) must conform to the McMaster Divinity College Style Guidelines for Essays and Theses

<http://www.mcmasterdivinity.ca/sites/default/files/documents/mdcstyleguide.pdf>. Failure to observe appropriate form will result in grade reductions.

Gender Inclusive Language

McMaster Divinity College uses inclusive language for human beings in worship services, student written materials, and all its publications. It is expected that inclusive language will be used in chapel services and all MDC assignments. In reference to biblical texts, the integrity of the original expressions and the names of God should be respected, but you will need to use gender-inclusive language for humans, and you will need to quote from a gender-inclusive version such as the following: NRSV (1989), NCV (1991), TEV/GNB/GNT (1992), CEV (1995), NLT (1996), TNIV (2005), and the Common English Bible (CEB 2011).

Academic Honesty

Academic dishonesty is a serious offence that may take any number of forms, including plagiarism, the submission of work that is not one's own or for which previous credit has been obtained, and/or unauthorized collaboration with other students. Academic dishonesty can result in severe consequences, e.g., failure of the assignment, failure of the course, a notation on one's academic transcript, and/or suspension or expulsion from the College. Students are responsible for understanding what constitutes academic dishonesty. Please refer to the Divinity College Statement on Academic Honesty at <https://mcmasterdivinity.ca/rules-regulations/>.
