MESSAGE FROM STANLEY E. PORTER

I wish to congratulate all of McMaster Divinity College's graduands on reaching this important day. Our prayer for you as you came to McMaster Divinity College was that you would reach this day knowing the Word of God, being transformed into Christ's image, and prepared for doing the work of ministry. We hope that you have experienced the fruit of this prayer. We now pray that you will leave the College better equipped to take your place as a Christian leader. Some of you are heading towards vocational ministry, others into teaching ministry, and still others into various kinds of valuable Christian service. Whatever God has in store for you, we trust that your time here has been one of deep spiritual, personal, and academic development, so as to become the person whom God will continue to use in His work in the world.

Although this occasion marks the completion of much work, effort, and sacrifice, it also marks the beginning of so much more. As you pursue your Christian vocation, we wish God's greatest blessings on you and your endeavours. In all that you do, whether the times are hard or easy, trying or trouble-free, we trust that they will be rewarding as you answer a genuine call to follow the Lord Jesus Christ and work to His glory. We want you to know that our continued prayers, concern, and interest will go with you. We would love to hear from you again regarding how God is working in your life and using you for His purposes.

*Stanley E. Porter,
President and Dean, McMaster Divinity College*

McMASTER DIVINITY COLLEGE

McMaster Divinity College is heir to an educational tradition that reaches back to 1838. In 1881, William McMaster, a wealthy merchant, banker and Senator of the Dominion of Canada, urged the creation of a theological school in Toronto, eventually helping to found Toronto Baptist College through his generous financial support. In 1887, this institution, which had provincial degree granting powers, joined with Woodstock College to become McMaster University. After relocating from Toronto to the current campus in west Hamilton in 1930, the University separated from the Divinity College in 1957. McMaster University was reorganized, transferring governance of the institution from the Baptist Convention of Ontario and Quebec to a privately chartered, publicly funded arrangement. McMaster Divinity College, as a separately and independently chartered college, though affiliated with the University, continues the legacy of Toronto Baptist College to this day. With its own Senate and Board of Trustees, MDC is freestanding and responsible for its own governance and finances. However, it remains situated at the heart of the McMaster University campus. McMaster Divinity College currently offers the Master of Theological Studies, Master of Divinity, Doctor of Practical Theology, Master of Arts, and Doctor of Philosophy degrees, as well as a Graduate Certificate in Christian Studies.
